

Notice Specific to Documents Available on this Website

All content and services officially offered by the Town of Winterville on this website are subject to change without notice. While the Town of Winterville strives to provide an error free website, it recognizes the possibility of error and therefore makes no representations as to the quality, accuracy, completeness, timeliness, reliability or suitability of the information provided on or by this website, and denies any expressed or implied warranty, including but not limited to fitness for its intended purposes.

The Town of Winterville endeavors to provide a public oriented website that is suitable to the entire community. However, the Town of Winterville hereby disclaims all warranties and conditions with regard to this information, including all implied warranties and conditions of merchantability, fitness for a particular purpose, title and non-infringement. In no event shall the Town of Winterville be liable for any special, indirect or consequential damages or any damages whatsoever resulting from loss of use, data or profits, whether in an action of contract, negligence or other action, arising out of or in connection with the use or performance of information available from this website.

To the extent allowed by law, commercial use of the material on this website is prohibited without written permission of the Town Winterville.

Notice Regarding Software, Documents and Services Available on this Website.

In no event shall the Town of Winterville Government be liable for any special, indirect, incidental or consequential damages or any damages whatsoever resulting from loss of use, data or profits, whether in an action of contract, negligence or tort action, arising out of or in connection with the use or performance of software, documents, provision of or failure to provide services, or information available from this website.

Privacy Policy

This policy describes the privacy practices of the Town Winterville as it pertains to the use of this website. This policy also describes some of the information collected from visitors to the website and how that information is used in the normal course of business. The use of this website indicates the user's acceptance of this policy.

Under State law (North Carolina General Statute §132-1), the content of the Town Winterville website is a public record and is "the property of the people". It is the position of the Town Winterville that the public may inspect, copy, and download public records and public information free or at a minimal cost unless the law indicates otherwise.

During the use of the Town Winterville website, some non-personal data concerning the user's visit to the website may be automatically collected.

The contents of any email or form submitted through this website may be collected. This information may be used to respond to inquiries, provide a specific service to the user, or enhance the user's experience to this website. The Town Winterville does not sell this information to any third parties. This information is managed in accordance with North Carolina General Statute §132-1.

Links to Third Party Sites

The Internet links contained in this website can allow the user to connect to third party sites that are not under the control of the Town Winterville. The Town Winterville is in no manner responsible for the content on these external third party websites or any other links contained on the third party website. The availability of any external third party website link is provided solely as a convenience and shall not constitute an endorsement or recommendation by the Town Winterville in any manner including but not limited to content, use or access.

This site is not intended to be a public forum. To avoid the appearance of Town endorsement, the following link requirements have been established:

- allowed sites include ones that link to other local and state governmental agencies, educational institutions, or an organization directly involved in a Town project or business venture
- prohibited sites contain politically partisan, sponsored by or serving a candidate for elected office, any political party or an organization supporting or seeking to defeat any candidate for elective office or ballot proposal, or represent any political party or point-of-view, either officially or unofficially
- prohibited sites contain items that are strictly commercial, political or religious
- prohibited sites contain material that is maintained by adult-entertainment businesses, groups or individuals

Linking to the Town Winterville Website

The Town Winterville allows links to the Town Winterville website as long as such links do not:

- Imply an association with the Town Winterville that has not been authorized
- Infer any endorsement of commercial products or services
- Impact the Town Winterville in a negative manner

Policy Acceptance

The use of the Town Winterville website is subject to the conditions and qualifications described by this policy and the use of this website indicates the acceptance of this policy.
